

CO-OPERATE

An introduction to the context

Derek Halden Consultancy

Derek Halden
Paul Davison

University of Aberdeen

John Farrington
Colin Smith

University College London

David Banister

CONCEPTUAL CONTEXT

SOCIAL JUSTICE

- RIGHTS, NEEDS, DESERTS, WANTS (Plant, 1991).
- FIRST ORDER GOOD (e.g. Freedom, Happiness, Security, Fulfillment, etc.)

SOCIAL INCLUSION

- The opportunity to participate in the normal activities of a society.
- SECOND ORDER GOOD (e.g. Work, Healthcare, Education, Sustenance, Social Interaction.)

ACCESSIBILITY

- The extent to which things are get-attable (Moseley, 1979).
- THIRD ORDER GOOD or Means of achieving second order good (and hence first order good).
- Means of 'spatial life'.

ACCESSIBILITY

Activities/Services (e.g.)

Work

Housing

Education/Training

Healthcare

Retail

Social/Leisure

Professional

Other (utilities, spiritual, emergency etc.)

Means (e.g.)

Mobility:

Car, etc.

Lifts

Public Transport

Community Transport

Walk/cycle.

Telephone/fax

Internet

Interactive TV

(Radio)

Proxy

COMMUNITY TRANSPORT

Approach focuses on STAKEHOLDERS:

- Needs (travel and access)
- Factors affecting travel behaviour
- Knowledge and information required to build confidence to participate in system
- Management requirements